The Committee is in receipt of your letter dated February 20, 2009 regarding the Committee's September 2008 Monthly Report and gives the following response: The beginning balance, Column B year-to-date totals, and ending cash on hand have been amended to reflect the correct amounts. The contribution from Obama for America has been correctly re-classed to Line 12 (Transfers). The purpose codes on Line 21(b) for printing, telecommunications, telephone/communications, and telephone calls have been amended to give more concise descriptions. Please be aware that these payments did not meet the definition for Federal Election Activity and were therefore reported on Schedule 21(b). The payments reported on Line 30(b) have been given more concise descriptions. Please note that these expenses did not contain express advocacy. The payments listed on Schedule B for Consulting/Day Workers were for Canvassers. The purpose code listed as Operating has been corrected. The payments listed on Schedule H4 for Consulting/Day Workers were for general admin work. These consultants did not spend more than 25% of their time on Federal Election Activity nor in connection with a federal election. The payroll listed on Schedule H4 reflects the remainder of staff who did not spend more than 25% of their time on Federal Election Activity nor in connection with a federal election and were properly reported on H4. The catering payment listed on Schedule H4 was for the Committee's event at the Democratic National Convention. The purpose codes on Schedule H4 for printing, telecommunications, telephone/communications, and telephone calls have been amended to give more concise descriptions. These ADMIN expenses were not made in connection with a federal election nor made on behalf of a federal candidate. The year to date total for the administrative category has been corrected. The coordinated payments now reflect the corresponding Schedule F.
